Free tutoring assistance available
Tutoring services provide academic support to help you excel in your coursework while reaching your personal goals. Tutoring is available in most NPC academic areas and is provided free of charge.
It is recommended that you seek a tutor when:
• You need help in completing assignments.
• You want assistance in understanding concepts and ideas.
• You want to know more about study skills and preparing for tests.
• You believe that you are falling behind.
For a schedule of tutoring labs or to sign up to become a tutor, click on www.npc.edu/tutoring.
Additional tutoring is also available at campus and centers, depending on tutor availability.

Library offers online research resources
Don’t forget – for your research needs – the NPC library catalog and databases are available online. You’ll also find links for Writing & Citation assistance that show you how to format your research paper in APA or MLA styles. Visit www.npc.edu/library.
Students with questions about NPC library services or needing research assistance can use their cell phones to text inquiries to librarians at (928) 351-4204.
You’ll generally get a response within an hour during regular library hours, or within two business days for after-hours inquiries. Message & data rates may apply.

Contestants compete for cash prizes
Auditions for the sixth annual Talent Contest, sponsored by NPC’s Student Government Association, will be from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. on March 7 and 14; from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on March 8; and from 5 to 8 p.m. on March 13 in the Learning Center Symposium Room at NPC’s Winslow and Snowflake campuses. Contestants must bring their own music, instruments, accompanist and props.
The show will feature singing, dancing and comedy routines. The competition is open to the general public. There will be two age groups: 5-13 and 14 & up.
For more information about the Talent Contest, contact Paul Hempsey, (800) 266-7845, ext. 7401 or email paul.hempsey@npc.edu.
