Registration for spring classes opens at 7:30 a.m. on Monday, Nov. 30. Returning students can register online through the MyNPC student portal. If you do register early, you must make payment arrangements or pay in full by Dec. 11 or you will be dropped from classes. Check out the eCashier plan to help spread your payments throughout the semester.

Most spring semester classes begin the week of Jan. 19. There’s a $25 late registration fee if you put off enrolling until the start of classes.

Between semesters office hours

During the winter break for students (Dec. 14 to Jan. 18), NPC offices and libraries will be open shorter hours. Visit www.npc.edu/office-hours.

No Registration: Dec. 28 & 29 – Financial Aid Office preparing awards, which will be available on Dec. 30.

All locations will be closed Dec. 23, 24, 25, 31 and Jan. 1, 11 and 18.

Extended Registration Hours: Jan. 12 & 13: 7:30 a.m. – 6:30 p.m.; Jan. 14: (Classes with insufficient enrollment will be cancelled, prior to 10 a.m.) 10 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.; and Jan. 15: 7:30 a.m. – 4 p.m.

SGA collecting nonperishable food items

NPC Student Government Association is collecting nonperishable food items at every NPC location, to be distributed to food banks within that campus/center community. Bring your donations by Friday, Dec. 18.

Fighting hunger – one bowl at a time

Over 165 attendees helped the Empty Bowls Community Event collect $2,040 for The Love Kitchen’s fight against hunger in our communities. Thank you!
