

Martia and Louis Smith Memorial Art Scholarship

A full Northland Pioneer College tuition scholarship for the 2022-2023 school year, covering the actual cost of tuition, books and course fees, up to $1,500.00 per semester or $3,000.00 per academic year.

Martia A. Smith was an artist and scholar who served as an instructor and major contributor to NPC's art program. Her husband, Louis Smith, established this scholarship, which honors her memory each year by awarding a full scholarship to a highly motivated, academically and artistically talented student. Louis Smith passed away December 12, 2020. His name was added to the scholarship, an homage to all he has done for the students of Northland Pioneer College through the establishment of this fund.

Qualifications:

Students applying for the Martia and Louis Smith Memorial Art Scholarship must

- Develop and complete a degree plan (See Academic Advisor)
