Juried Student Art Show 2025

The purpose of the NPC Student Art Show is to showcase student accomplishments in the visual arts and honor exceptional achievement. All NPC students are encouraged to participate.

The NPC Student Art Show is a juried exhibition. A panel of jurors will review all of the submitted artworks and select the pieces that will appear in the show. Not all submitted works will be exhibited. Acceptance to a show that has been juried is an honor. It is a distinction that can be listed on a resume and is the type of professional recognition that is essential to any student pursuing a career in art. The jury puts much consideration into the selection process. Successful composition, craftsmanship, mastery of medium and originality are all evaluated. Students should be aware that the jury process is intended to encourage artistic growth. Any questions about jurying may be addressed to the fine and performing arts faculty:

Peterson Yazzie: peterson.yazzie@npc.edu
Carson Saline: richard.saline@npc.edu

Magda Gluszek: magda.gluszek@npc.edu

However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and

- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.
