Fall Advisory Meeting

9/4/24

6:30 am arrival, 7:00 am Meeting start time.

Location: Winslow Chamber of Commerce

NPC members in attendance: Kurry Klingel, Charlene Klingel, & Rachel Townsend – Faculty in Business

The meeting opened at 7:00 a.m. with breakfast burritos, fruit, water, and juice brought in by BOJO’s Bar and Grill, which was paid for by NPC. We are currently waiting on reimbursement of $668.00.

There were 45 people in attendance, plus the 3 NPC faculty.

7:00 – 7:20 am – Members ate breakfast and socialized.

At 7:20 am, the Winslow chamber CEO introduced Kurry Klingel. Kurry introduced the faculty members in attendance. As an icebreaker, he conducted an NPC trivia game. A sign-in sheet was distributed.

7:25 am, Rachel Townsend was introduced and gave a presentation about the new Bachelor of Applied Management degree. Promoting its inexpensive cost and how the cost compares to other universities in Arizona. Gave information on the degree’s stackability to our associate degrees and how it works. Then, she concluded by talking about the 8-week classes, OER courses, and virtual internships. She then fielded questions from the audience, which seemed less like questions for the BUS dept and more like general NPC suggestions. The general feeling in the room was that everyone was excited to see that NPC was offering a bachelor’s degree in management. Her presentation ended at around 7:45.

7:45 am Winslow Chamber of Commerce business was conducted.

8:05 am Meeting ended with NPC faculty staying to answer questions.

8:30 am NPC faculty left.
